BROWN, Mem. Ho. of Reps. U. S. from Mississippi. An equal competition between the intellectual labors of the eastern and western hemispheres, must be productive of the happiest results. J. THOMPSON, of Mississippi. STATE OF MISSOURI. Senators. Every measure which would have the effect of spreading the lights of religion and knowledge, and to bring the different nations of the earth into close communication, and bind them together by the bands of harmony, love, and common interests, must have beneficial results. Such I believe would be the tendency of Mr. Vattermare's exertions. LEWIS F. LINN, of Missouri. I cannot limit myself to the expression of my great approbation of Mr. Vattermare's plan, and my sincere desire to see it accomplished, but must add that I feel it as one of the felicities of my life to have had an opportunity of making the personal acquaintance of a gentleman who is the author and inventor of a scheme so enlarged and liberal, and so conducive to the good understanding of nations, and who unites to great and varied talents an amiability which has conciliated friends all over the world. THOMAS H. BENTON, of Missouri. Representatives. N John Miller, Cooper county, Missouri. John Jameson, Fulton, Missouri. STATE OF ARKANSAS. Senators. The project of Mr. Vattermare of establishing an international exchange of the specimens of the arts, science, industry, and natural history, is one which must meet the cordial...
