Odyssey of a Wayward Traveler (Paperback)

By Raymond A. Uzan

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At the start of 2005, 18 months after his wife Loretta lost her battle with cancer, Ray Uzan sold his house in Rhode Island and began a journey of self discovery, renewal, and adventure. Ray s was a 21st century odyssey where he not only came to accept his past loss but also passionately and privately experienced the challenges and joys of traveling around the lower 48 states. For 20,000 miles, over a period of nearly six months, Uzan crossed the country on its less traveled byways with little advance planning, using only the logistics of the situation and his interests to determine his route. Finding the elusive Venus fly trap growing in the wild, sleeping in a tree hut in the forest of Georgia, solo hiking within the barren White Sands of NM, encountering a curious and hungry bear in Sequoia, talking photography with a former Ansel Adams student in Mendocino, often crossing the path of Lewis Clark s 1803/05 expedition, observing the predator/prey drama in Yellowstone s Lamar Valley, meeting tribal elders of the Crow Indians...
