I am thoughtful, yet thoughtless. I am poetic, yet I write aimlessly. I am a great orator at times, yet speechless at moments. A writer with so much to say, yet my paper has only a few bars of sentences. Ive said this to say, I am lost for words, yet I think my thoughts. I will try to find words to express my deepest feelings, to describe me to you, to make explicit my thoughts and seduce you with meaningful phrases that will raise your temperature, and break the boundaries of your inner-most feelings. I am certain that the title may amuse your thinking faculties, but for me Crickets represent the good, the bad, and the ugliness that we all have endured in life at one time or another. We all exist because of situations. Life deals us a handful of situations at birth. And before we know it, we belong to a...
