Excerpt: . . . 11 the usual weekly earnings of full-time workers, including some in-formation about wage distributions; is that right Commissioner Hall. Thats correct. Chairman Schumer. OK, our staff at the Joint Economic Committee has done some calculations that show some disturbing trends in that wage distribution. First, they show that from the fourth quarter of 2000 to the fourth quarter of 2007, median earnings, right in the middle, have fallen by. 9 percent or about. 1 percent per year after inflation. Does that number seem about right to you Commissioner Hall. Thats roughly in line with our calculations. airman C Schumer. However, over that same period, earnings at the very top of that distribution, the 90th percentile, have risen by 4. 5 percent or. 6 percent a year after inflation while earnings near the bottom of the distribution, the 10th percentile, have fallen by 2. 3 percent or 3 percent a year after inflation. Does that seem right to you...
