expression, There is more than one way to skin a cat, and within the last few days, while visiting the Michigan State Ec. Med. and Surg. Society, I have been a witness to the fact that there may be more than one way to defeat class legislation. Dr. Henry B. Baker is the secretary of the Michigan State Board of Health and as such, a tool of the allopaths of that State. Dr. Baker is author of a bill to regulate the practice of medicine in Michigan. Dr. Wm. Bell, Michigans long-headed and brainy eclectic, in looking after the legal rights of his school, finally camped on the trail of the author of the obnoxious bill. He so managed it that Dr. Baker was invited to lecture on Sanitary Science before the Michigan State Ec. Med. and Surg. Society, which lecture consisted largely in...
