By United States Bureau of Reclamation

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual of Field Accounting Sir: The committee charged with the duty of devising a uniform system of accounting for the Reclamation Service, with particular reference to field operations, begs leave to present herewith its report. The plan outlined has been tested beyond the experimental stage, as the major portion of it has been used for considerably over a year on the Salt River project, and for several months on the Yuma, Carlsbad, and Truckee-Carson projects, and is producing most excellent results. Most of our labors, therefore, have been confined to studying conditions on the projects on which construction work is being carried or is contemplated. While experience will probably suggest improvements in matters of detail, and it may be found that certain instructions will be difficult of execution, and certain blanks and forms may require modification, in the main the general principles outlined are thought to be correct, and to be what is needed to collect the desired data.
